

WHY ONLY KILLEN?

A documentary that reopens the question of the adequacy of justice brought to the Mississippi civil rights murders of 1964

What: Documentary Screening

Where: First Union Missionary Baptist Church
(610 38th Avenue, Meridian, Mississippi)

When: Saturday, June 9, 6:30 p.m.

In June 2005, Edgar Ray "Preacher" Killen was convicted of manslaughter by Mississippi 41 years after the murders of civil rights workers James Chaney, Andrew Goodman, and Michael Schwerner. It is widely believed that there are many others who were complicit in the murders, yet Mississippi has never prosecuted any of these people. Why Only Killen? explores this issue.

Please join First Union Missionary Baptist Church and the Arkansas Delta Truth and Justice Center for a screening of the documentary on Saturday, June 9 at 6:30 p.m. at the church at 610 38th Avenue in Meridian, Mississippi.
