RACKLIFFE arrived at HOUSER's farm at approximately 10:00 p.m. HOUSER told RACKLIFFE there would be a Klavern meeting of Klavern #10 on Thursday, November 19, 1970, at Keystone Hall, Upper Darby, Pa. HOUSER told RACKLIFFE he would show the new klan movie he bought in New York City for $300 in which it shows a "nigger with KKK carved in his chest and another nigger who was castrated by the klan."

RACKLIFFE asked OTIS if he ever heard from his friend CLAUDE WECHTEL. OTIS said he had received a letter from CLAUDE in Weaverville, S.C., where OTIS lives.

CLAUDE was living in Winchester, Va., on either Rent or Kent Street as recently as September 1970.

Also present at HOUSER's farm was a young woman called NANCY (LNU) whose husband is called RICH (LNU) and is a new member of the klan. NANCY was operating a yellow Pontiac convertible approximately 1964 with Pennsylvania Registration 5E3-385. NANCY (LNU) is a member of the women's unit in Oxford, Pa.

HOUSER asked RACKLIFFE to call AL BAILEY and find out BARRY IGNATOVIK's phone number and call BARRY and tell him that he was welcome to start attending klavern meetings in Upper Darby. HOUSER further explained to RACKLIFFE that IGNATOVIK and AL ROWE of the Trevose, Pa., unit had been fighting and that IGNATOVIK would no longer attend meetings where ROWE was.

This concludes this report.
