

California Newsreel presents:

SNCC 50th Anniversary Conference

Now Available on DVD

In April 2010, hundreds of veteran and youth activists gathered at Shaw University in North Carolina to commemorate the 50th anniversary of the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC), an organization which formed the vanguard of the Civil Rights Movement. SNCC became a proving ground for many of the ideas and leaders who galvanized African Americans over the next half-century.

Newsreel is proud to offer the SNCC Collection, a 38 DVD series that covers the full 50+ hours of incisive plenary sessions, panel discussions and cultural programs at the conference, including presentations by U.S. Attorney General, Eric Holder, Cong. John Lewis, Harry Belafonte, Danny Glover, Bernice Johnson Reagon and many other SNCC veterans and supporters. The collective experience of the participants, the close examination of this crucial period in U.S. history and its continuing relevance for contemporary youth activists make this collection an invaluable scholarly resource on the Civil Rights and Black Power Movement, not just of the past but the future.

For more information about this collection please visit:

www.newsreel.org

Pricing:

$14.95

$49.95

$499.00

Individual Sale (Home Video Use)

Individual Sale (Educational Institution and Organizational Use)

Complete 38 DVD Set (Institutional or Home Video Use)

film and video for social change
since 1968

ABOUT CALIFORNIA NEWSREEL:

California Newsreel is the oldest non-profit, social issue documentary film distribution center in the country and a leading resource for the advancement of racial and social justice. For more information on these and other titles on African American Life and History, please visit www.newsreel.org