A lady who had been working at Don's rest home and was then working the the Holiday Inn on Highway 80 West was fired last night. She was one of the ones who had walked out of the rest home.

Mr. Morris is the supervisor of the Holiday Inn. Handles the finances of the Inn. Mrs. Robertson works there.

She had been a cook at the rest home. It seems that the employer fired her because he found out that she was one of those who had left the rest home and had not told him this when she got the job at the Inn.
