

The Veterans of the Mississippi Civil Rights Movement, Inc.
**&
TOUGALOO COLLEGE announce

The
Jimmie Travis
Civil Rights Legacy
Symposium Series

*Co-Founder and Former Chairman,
 Veterans of the Mississippi Civil Rights Movement, Inc.*

Thursday, February 28, 2013 * 6:30 p.m.

Tougaloo College * Woodworth Chapel * 500 W. County Line Drive * Tougaloo, MS

“Jimmie was very committed to the principle of the civil rights movement that emphasized the right of the people to decide their fates through his fearless dedication. He was one of the “TENT POLES” of the Mississippi movement that held many together. No one was more committed to empowering Mississippi black and poor people than Jimmie Travis. Behind his quiet easy manner, soft voice and beautiful smile was a man-child of steel who was determined to destroy every vestige of racial segregation” ..... Dr. Joyce Ladner, former president, Howard University.

Tributes and Remembrances by:

Rev. Annie Travis
Widow, Chaplain Rust College

Mr. Owen Brooks
Civil Rights Veteran Friend

MADDRAMA
Performance Troupe

Joe Davenport
*Producer
 Student Filmmaker*

For more information, contact:

The Veterans of the Mississippi Civil Rights Movement, Inc.

(601) 977-7914, (601) 918-7809 or

*MississippiCivilRightsVeterans@gmail.com * www.MsCivilRightsVeterans.com*

*Hollis Watkins, Chairman * Cynthia Goodloe Palmer, Executive Director or Danny Lee Jones, Director of External Relations, Tougaloo College*

(601) 977-7870 or dljones@tougaloo.edu

