

REGIONAL COUNCIL OF NEGRO LEADERSHIP

213 FOURTH STREET
CLARKSDALE, MISSISSIPPI

May 4, 1962

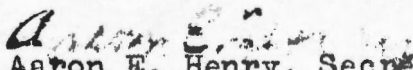

The Annual Session of the Regional Council of Negro Leadership will be held Sunday May 13th at Bethel Methodist Church in Mound Bayou, Mississippi. The church is pastored by the Rev. B. H. Martin. A full days program is planned and you will receive much information and inspiration when you arrive.

There will be workshops engaged in all phases of the freedom struggle. There will be men and women that have had many experiences that will share them with us on this date. The afternoon session will begin at 2 P. M. Registration and workshops will begin at 10 A. M. The night session which will begin at 8 P. M. will feature an address by Reverend Merrill Winston Lindsey, candidate for Congress from the Second Congressional District. A nationally known speaker will highlight the meeting at 2 P. M. in the afternoon.

The freedom movement is going well, you are counted on to do your part. Please come prepared to spend the whole day.

Yours for freedom,

E. P. Burton M. D., President

Aaron E. Henry, Secretary
