Dear Friend -

We are happy to know that you will be joining us in the workshop on civil rights and civil liberties, to be held here in Atlanta, June 28-30th.

Workshop Schedule

As previously indicated this will be an informal gathering, designed to provide time for the exchange of ideas and information and for both group and personal discussions. However, the enclosed general schedule will be followed.

Arrival and Room Assignments

Since the first session is scheduled to begin at 7:30 o'clock, Friday evening, everyone is urged to arrive not later than 7:00 P.M. Someone will be available at the Gammon Building, 653 Beckwith Street, S.W. from 5:00 P.M. to 7:30 P.M. to assign rooms. Late comers will, of course, be accommodated at the close of the opening session.

Travel Expenses

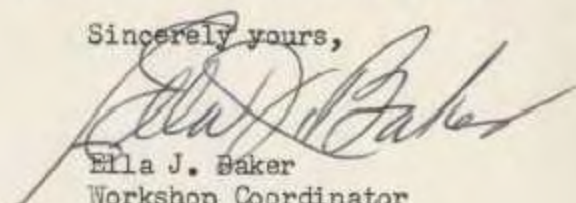

The workshop committee will have cash available to cover travel expenses of persons who have requested this. However, if there is an emergency need for a travel advance please call me at Sycamore 4-9042, Atlanta, Georgia.

Directions

Persons arriving by train or bus should take a taxicab to the Gammon Building, 653 Beckwith Street, S.W. If travelling by car, drive out Hunter Street to Chestnut Street; turn South on Chestnut, drive one block to Beckwith; turn left on Beckwith to building # 653.

Advance registration indicates that this workshop will be a valuable and stimulating educational experience and we look forward to sharing it with you.

Sincerely yours,

Ella J. Baker
Workshop Coordinator

P.S. If you should arrive in Atlanta after 3:00 P.M., Friday afternoon and need further information, please call: MU 8-0331. The office of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee has agreed to render this assistance.

*Look forward to seeing you,
Ella*
