SNCC

On February 1, 1960, four Negro students in Greensboro, N. Carolina sat-in at a "whites-only" lunch counter. They began the Southern sit-in movement. Two months later, the leaders of the sit-ins gathered in Raleigh, N. Carolina and formed the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee.

Today, just five years after the first sit-ins, the SNCC program in Mississippi grows, and spreads to other Black Belt States: voter registration, freedom schools, community centers, research, and federal programs. Underlying everything is a commitment - to make democracy a living thing, to put power where it belongs ---- in the hands of all the people.

250 people now work fulltime as field secretaries in SNCC. They are building the movement in the South - working with the local people, the day laborers and sharecroppers, the farmers and ministers, the teachers and domestics. We need them, and they need us.

Here in the North, there is much to do. Funds are desperately and continuously needed. Political support is needed too. Seven out of ten Bay Area Congressmen voted against the Mississippi Congressmen on the opening day of Congress. They are: Congressmen Leggett, Burton, Mailliard, Cchelan, Miller, Edwards and Baldwin. These men are to be congratulated for their support of free elections in Mississippi.

We hope you will join Friends of SNCC - for yourself, for the country, and for the spirit of freedom everywhere.

Mike Miller
Bay Area Regional SNCC Representative
