Dear Mrs. Garde:

Your request for our products has been directed to my attention.

It is always distressing to us to have to say "no" to the many deserving requests which come to us. However, we have adapted a firm company policy against participation of this type because we are not able to accept all of the large number of such requests submitted to us throughout the year.

We wish you much success in your endeavors and regret that we cannot be of assistance to you.

Very truly yours,

PERMACEL
