APPLICATION FOR FIELD WORKER IN CORE TASK FORCE

More Task Force workers for Louisiana and Mississippi are needed. Programs in these states are expanding rapidly. There are openings for more people than are presently working in these states.

Voter registration work will be continued. Added programs include community centers and freedom schools. The projects need people with at least one of the following skills:

Creative (musical, dance, art, writing, film)

Organizational (working with groups of children, high school students or adults)

Medical (pre-natal care, dietetic, public health)

Programmatic (background in federal farm programs, co-ops, small business administration)

Teaching (particularly basic English and math, literacy for adults, remedial reading for children and Negro history)

Hiring preference will be in the following order:

- 1) Native Mississippi and Louisiana Negroes
- 2) Southern Negroes
- 3) Northern Negroes
- 4) White males
- 5) White females

Applicants must commit themselves to a minimum of six months in the south, but preference will be given to those whose commitment is a year or longer.

Money to pay the workers (yearly subsistence is $1300) is to be raised by local chapters, churches, unions, etc. Such groups are being encouraged to adopt one or several workers. They will receive periodic reports from the workers.

(Please print. Answer all questions fully.)

I have many reasons for wanting to work with CORE in Mississippi. Basically I want to translate a feeling of commitment into an act of commitment. I want to be with and aid the four Canton people I met through Tom Manoff this summer. I felt that when I heard them sing and talk I was in the presence of honest and courageous people untouched by pretentiousness.

I want to work hard and know that my work, however menial and slow, is meaningful to my country, my countrymen and to myself. Since I have 3½ months free before I return to college, there could be no better way to use that freedom than in Mississippi.

I have gone on here as if I expect my assignment to be Canton, Miss. and Madison County. I would like it to be, but I understand that you might want me elsewhere. My home town, Tarrytown, is now in the process of collecting food and clothing and money for Canton, and the town wishes to establish a link for Canton in the north. I would like to be part of that link now that I know people like Junior Chinn, Gracie Hawthorne and others from Canton.
