APPLICATION FOR FIELD WORKER IN CORE TASK FORCE

More Task Force workers for Louisiana and Mississippi are needed. Programs in these states are expanding rapidly. There are openings for more people than are presently working in these states.

Voter registration work will be continued. Added programs include community centers and freedom schools. The projects need people with at least one of the following skills:

Creative (musical, dance, art, writing, film)

Organizational (working with groups of children, high school students or adults)

Medical (pre-natal care, dietetic, public health)

Programmatic (background in federal farm programs, co-ops, small business administration)

Teaching (particularly basic English and math, literacy for adults, remedial reading for children and Negro history)

Hiring preference will be in the following order:

- 1) Native Mississippi and Louisiana Negroes
- 2) Southern Negroes
- 3) Northern Negroes
- 4) White males
- 5) White females

Applicants must commit themselves to a minimum of six months in the south, but preference will be given to those whose commitment is a year or longer.

Money to pay the workers (yearly subsistence is $1300) is to be raised by local chapters, churches, unions, etc. Such groups are being encouraged to adopt one or several workers. They will receive periodic reports from the workers.
