

ARKANSAS FREEDOM CENTERS

SUPPLIES NEEDED:

Art Supplies

Paper—construction and typing paper, rolls of butcher paper or wrapping paper, tablets, all kinds of lined and unlined paper, cardboard scissors—children's and adults' crayons—large numbers magic markers paints—tempera, water color, finger paints. Large amounts modeling clay brushes—small and large. Large numbers (most children have never handled a brush) colored pencils, regular pencils, ball point pens masking tape, glue, paste, scotch tape thumb tacks

Crafts

pot holder looms and loops knitting needles and yarn scrap material, needle and thread

Music

drums record players (at least four) records—African and Negro music (e.g., jazz, folk songs, spirituals and gospel), folk dances tape recorders (at least four), blank tapes musical instruments

Recreation

board games, new or in very good condition (this goes for everything) volley balls and nets games like croquet, horseshoes, badminton In some areas there is space for swings, slides, etc. baseball, basketball, football + equip

School supplies

books—see list film strip projectors movie film projectors opaque projectors blackboards, chalk, erasers paper clips

Magazine subscriptions—each of the projects (4) could use at least one subscription to each: Liberator, Liberation, Nation, Ebony, Jet, Life, Look, National Geographic, children's magazines

Newspaper subscriptions for teachers, staff:

New York Times, Washington Post, Afro-American, Southern Mediator Journal (Published in Little Rock)

Unless you have adopted a particular project, all supplies should be sent to:
SNCC, 700 West 9th Street, Little Rock, Arkansas, 72201
Phone: (501) FRanklin5-9081

Penn
CA-560