A lot of people gave little and a few people gave a lot, we could get a car for every county we work in. Can YOU HELP?

Organizing in a rural county means needing an automobile with a short wave radio, gasoline to get to mass meetings, or to a site where a church has just been burned, or to reach people who are afraid to come to us, and to take people to courthouses to register for voting.

Freedom Schools need supplies, and lights, and heat... Community Centers need all kinds of equipment for work and play... And all of our workers, and all of the volunteers who have come to help need places to stay, and something to eat, and a way to move about so that more people can be reached.

IF YOU CAN HELP, SEND YOUR PLEDGE OR CONTRIBUTION TO:

MAKE CHECKS PAYABLE TO SNCC BLACK BELT PROJECT

Running across the deep South is an almost continuous band of counties in the states of Arkansas, Louisiana, Mississippi, Alabama, Georgia, South Carolina, North Carolina and Virginia in which Negroes comprise forty-three per cent or more of the population.

This is the Black Belt,
In 1964 SNCC led a major frontal attack on the oppression of the Southern Negro through the Mississippi Summer Project.

Several new SNCC programs emerged from the MSP: Freedom Schools, Community Centers, Federal Projects, and aggressive political organizing, and the creation of the Freedom Democratic Party.

The events in Selma during the Spring of 1965 were an outgrowth of SNCC field secretaries' work on Voter Registration there since 1961. With the completion of the March on Montgomery, SNCC staff people are moving out into the rural counties of Alabama's black belt to organize the Black Belt Project. Many of these same SNCC field secretaries laid the groundwork for the Mississippi Summer Project by their work in the backwoods Mississippi counties beginning in McComb in 1961.

The demand of ONE MAN / ONE VOTE, the byword of the movement in Mississippi has now come to Alabama and is spreading throughout the entire black belt area.

Since 1961 SNCC has had projects in various counties of the Black Belt, in the states of Arkansas, Mississippi, Alabama and Georgia. The focus has been on the development of local organizations, training of emerging leadership, political education and most important, Voter Registration. Experience has taught us that the only way to deal with legalized segregation and government-sanctioned impediments to human rights is to change the people in the seats of government. Citizens must be registered to vote and they must vote in sufficient numbers to affect the electoral process.

WILL YOU HELP?
