MEMO TO THE EXECUTIVE AND PERSONNEL COMMITTEES
FROM WILLIAM PORTER, STAFF AND CONFERENCE COORDINATOR
RE: STAFF MEETING

[William Porter]

The time is drawing near for the next staff meeting. I am sure that at this point we are not able to face another staff meeting, but it is my job to remind you of the time. I am sure that sooner or later we are going to be forced to call a staff meeting. There are so many things that the whole organization will have to deal with: for example, fall programs, hiring and firing of personnel, finances, allocation of resources and many other things. I would suggest calling the meeting for the first week in September.

I would appreciate your comments and suggestions.

Some additional comments:

In my opinion, the last staff meeting was a waste of time and money.

At this point we have no money and cannot find a place where the whole staff can stay at the same time. Even if we went to Waveland, I think it would be preferable if we could all stay in the same building, but we can't all fit in the Inn.

Also, if the staff is planning to bring every Dick, Tom, and Harry to the meeting because he works for us or with us, this is not feasible. I am planning on arranging a SNCC conference so we can invite these people when we get the money and the time is right, but right now there are some things we as a staff have to get together on.

I am not sure I will be able to attend the next meeting, but I am willing to set it up for the staff.
