Mississippi Freedom Democratic Party
507½ North Farish Street,
Jackson.
Tel: 948-4038

October 16th, 1965.

INFORMATION - ADDRESSES ETC. OF RESOURCE PEOPLE

ASC & elections

Roberta Galler - P.O. Box 366, Edwards, Miss. Tel: 852-2622
(working particularly on setting up workshops, providing speakers etc.)

Kay Prickett - FDP office, 507½ N. Farish St. Tel: 948-4038
(general information)

Welfare

Dobbio Nelson - P.O. Box 366, Edwards, Miss. Tel: 852-2622
(a brochure on welfare should be ready within the next two weeks)

Employment

Miko BrowLand - 900, Farish Street N., Jackson. Tel: 948-5960
(deals with job complaints etc.)

Elections and Anti-Poverty Programs

State office, 507½, N. Farish St., Jackson.

School desegregation

Henry Aronson - Inc Fund office, Farish St., Jackson.
(Aronson is also dealing with complaints re payment of school tuition).
FOOD STAMP PROGRAM

State office, Jackson - Marion Davidson, Washington PFS
926, Pennsylvania Ave NE.
Washington D.C.

POOR PEOPLE'S CORPORATION

Jesse Morris - 900, Farish Street N., Jackson
Doris Derby - Tel: 948-5960

Freedom Information Center

Curtis Hayes - P.O. Box 366, Edwards, Miss.
Tel: 852-2622.

Information on the ASCS elections can be had direct from the State ASCS office, Milner Building, Jackson. The office is located on the 1th floor. A Mr. Sullivan is State director for the ASCS.

Complaints and information about the working of anti-poverty programs in Mississippi should be addressed to O.E.O. Regional office in Atlanta, Georgia. The person to write to is: MaMa Carl, U.S. Office ofn O.E.O., 101, Marietta Street, Atlanta, Ga.

Information about welfare generally - i.e., disability pensions, commodities,
- can be had in pamphlet form from the State Welfare Dept., Milner Building, Jackson. In some areas, Laurel and Gulfport, local Welfare officials have agreed to attend FDP meetings to explain the Food Stamp Program.

Complaints over voter registration should still be sent to the Justice Dept., Washington D.C., as well as to this office, and to Bill Higgs, 12 10th St E, Washington DC.

A fund raising office for the FDP has been set up in New York.
The office is being run by Judy Slawson, 100 5th Ave, New York City.
(Address letters c/o New York SNCC). She would like news items, newsletters to be sent her at the above address.

Henry Aronson at the Inc Fund (352-8243) has done research into Title
6 of the Civil Rights Bill (1964); in particular into "equalization of "facilities" such as roads, sewers, drainage, lighting etc.