

Dear

Mr. Moore

This is an invitation to attend a meeting, to talk about a food Co - op. As you know many people are not getting enough food. Many who get enough are not getting the right kind.

In a Co - op of this kind poor people able to work could work together. They could set up and manage the Co- op. What this would mean is about as out lived below.

1. Poor people would be the owners of the Co - op.
2. People able to work would work at raising the food, picking the food, canning the food, and seeing that the food and profits are fairly shared by people in need.

Some poor people like the idea. Some experts in forming tell us this can work.

What we need to talk about is:

1. How a co - op can be started.
2. Where to get expert help on how to grow, how to can and how to run this business.
3. What to do to get money for land and equipment.

This meeting will be in Mound Bayou.
