C -- bio summary on Courtland COX

CROSS REFERENCE TO	DISPATCH SYMBOL AND NUMBER	DATE 07 AUG 1970
	CLASSIFICATION	HQS FILE NUMBER
	ORIGINATING OFFICE — OFFICER — TYPIST	EXT.

Courtland Vernon COX

COX was born 27 January 1941, at New York, New York. He was issued U.S. Passport G-1121528 on 26 October 1966.

In November 1966, COX was a SNCC observer to meetings of the Bertrand Russell War Crimes Tribunal in London. In June 1968, he resigned from SNCC and joined the Afro-American Resources, Inc., which owns and operates the Drum and Spear Bookstore.

In July 1969, COX attended the Pan-African Cultural Festival in Algiers with a group he helped to organize through Drum and Spear.

COX is an instructor at the Center for Black Education (CBE) in Washington and has also taught at Malcolm X Liberation University in Durham, North Carolina (the sister school of the CBE).

COX arrived in Tanzania in May 1970, reportedly on business for the Drum and Spear publishing company -- a new project of the Drum and Spear Bookstore.
