

SO YOU ARE WILLING TO BE ARRESTED

Despite the fact that after careful legal analysis we have been advised by our attorneys that the direct action project here involved is both legal and constitutional, we are informed that we should be prepared for the possibility that the following things might happen:

If you join this action, there is a good chance that you will be arrested. You should understand that your part in this action does not end at such time as the arrest takes place or at the moment you are released on bail. Shortly after your arrest you will be arraigned in court, at which time the judge will hear your plea of innocence and will set the date for your trial. You probably will be required to appear in court for your arraignment and possibly for the whole period of time that your trial lasts. In some cases, this period might extend for several months. If you are found guilty, and if this verdict is not reversed on appeal, you may be sentenced to a term in jail which you will have to serve. During all this time you will still be participating in a CORE action and will be subject to CORE discipline.

If CORE has decided on jail without bail in this action you will be expected to do the same.

=====

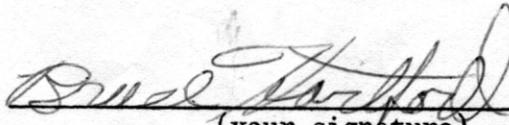

I understand that CORE does not guarantee to bail me out of jail.

I understand that CORE does not guarantee to provide me with legal counsel.

I agree that if I am arrested I will appear whenever and wherever necessary, regardless of personal inconvenience or hardship, until the action is called off.

I agree to abide by CORE discipline at all times.

I understand that I shall be participating in a nonviolent protest against racial discrimination, that arrest or personal injury to me might result, and that by signing this application I waive all rights to damages against CORE (the Congress of Racial Equality), its directors, its officers, any other sponsoring organizations, and all others in any way connected with the project.
