

COMMITTEE

Members are to be regarded as individuals - not as representatives of groups or institutions

All members are to be elected by vote of Committee. The Committee shall be the sole judge of the proper personnel of its membership. The Committee may expel a member for proper and sufficient cause and by proper procedure.

It seems fair that representation of various points of view on Vietnam should reflect, as nearly as practicable and ascertainable, the various viewpoints of the suburbs represented on the Committee.

Basic justice and fairness require that Committee members strongly opposing a given side of the controversy should not vote in selection of the speakers to support that side.
