

The world finds itself on the brink of a major war in Vietnam. The escalation of the war has already brought death to thousands of Vietnamese men, women and children, as well as to American boys.

DON'T STAND BY WHILE HUMAN LIFE IS DESTROYED

JOIN THE

MARCH ON WASHINGTON

to end the WAR in VIETNAM

SATURDAY, APRIL 17

On Saturday, April 17, 1965, there will be a national protest march on Washington, to make public the enormous opposition of many, many Americans to the dangerous, illegal, useless, and immoral war in Vietnam.

This March on Washington to End the War in Vietnam was initiated by the Students for a Democratic Society and is held with the active cooperation of War Resisters League, Women Strike for Peace, Committee for Nonviolent Action, and the Student Peace Union.

The undersigned enthusiastically welcome the initiative taken by the students, endorse the March and its program, call for vigorous support and urge all who can do so to take part in the April 17th March on Washington:

Kay Boyle	Erich Fromm	Dorothy Hutchinson	Norman Thomas
James Farmer	Al Hassler	Staughton Lynd	Arthur Waskow
W. H. Ferry	H. Stuart Hughes	A. J. Muste	Dagmar Wilson
