DICK GREGORY TO ARRIVE
ATLANTA SNCC HEAD ANNOUNCED

ATLANTA, GA. --- The Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee has announced the appointment of a SNCC "Coordinator of Atlanta Activities," and the arrival of comedian Dick Gregory here Saturday, January 25.

Gregory -- who led recent Toddle House desegregation demonstrations here -- will arrive in Atlanta Saturday to "help conduct further protests," according to SNCC spokesmen.

Miss Prathia Hall, 23, from Philadelphia, Pa., will direct SNCC efforts in Atlanta. Miss Hall has worked for SNCC for over a year, and has been active in voter registration work and direct action in Albany, Ga. and surrounding counties, Selma, Ala. and Greenwood, Miss.

She is a 1962 graduate of Temple University and studied political science and religion.
