San Sands. Wirdial Lydan serveral.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

JACKSON - Mrs. Willie Lee Catchings of 715 Page Street, Jackson, received hospital care for cuts on her head and hand after being attacked by an elderly white man in the Greyhound bus station coffee shop here today.

Mrs. Catchings and three other members of her family, all Negro, had finished having hamburgers and Enkar soft drinks when the man attacked her with a rusty piece of metal.

Mrs. Catchings was charged with disturbing the peace in an affadavit signed by Ilene Parker, white employee at the station.

Bail was set at $40. Mrs. Catchings pixxxxxx filed assault charges against her alleged assailant, ______.

* * * * *

The incident came after an integrated group of six persons served and had luncheon at Shawney's Restaurant, where they were/treated with extreme courtesy by the management

Mrs. Pearl Draine, Negrax of 1132 Corinth St., Jackson, was the owner of the car. Local police refused to knipsker provide her transportation to the Police Department, saying she should get there as "the best way you can, as fast as possible." She waited 25 minutes after her arrival, before signing an affadavit against Jon Hughes.

Between 30 and 40 teenagers circled the restaurant while the group was eating. When they emerged, the teen-agers threw eggs at the car and spat mram directly in the face of Karen Lee white Pate, 22, manner volunteer with the Mississippi Summer Project. Miss Pate is a University of Oregon graduate who resides in Prairie City, Oregon.

* * * * *

with the Student Non-Violent CANTON - Three white students werexaskie and instance is project here rabx substablish the babk broken babk broken being denied admission to Sunday services the First Methodist Church this morning.

Two were volunteers with the who had been welcomed i front of the EXECUTE Same congregation by the assistant minister of the ch rch a week ago. They are Nancy Cooper, 23, Queens College student from 17-72 th 166 St., Whitestone, NY, and Michael Piore, 23, Harvard University student from 115 Central Park West, NYC.

Accompanying them was a Project visitor, David Finkelstein.

Attameraxical aximply Seven ushers told them simply, "Due to circumstances, you are not welcome here."

* * * * *