

MARCH AGENDA

The schedule for the March on Washington to End the War in Vietnam is as follows:

10 AM--We will assemble at the White House for the picket line

1:30AM--We will march down 15th Street to the Sylvan Theater, beneath the Washington Monument, to hear speeches by:
I.F. Stone, publisher of I.F. Stone's Weekly
Senator Gruening, Democrat from Alaska
Bob Parris, SNCC field Secretary
Iva Pearce, mother of five from the Cleveland Community Project
Paul Potter, President of Students for a Democratic Society
Chairman, Staughton Lynd, Professor of History, Yale University

3:30PM--We will walk down the mall to the Capitol Building to present our petition to Congress

5:00PM--Buses and trains will begin to depart from Washington

PETITION TO CONGRESS

We, the participants in the March on Washington to End the War in Vietnam, petition Congress to act immediately to end the war. You currently have at your disposal many schemes, including reconvening of the Geneva Conference, negotiation with the National Liberation Front and North Vietnam, immediate withdrawal, and UN-supervised elections. Although those among us might differ as to which of these is most desirable, we are unanimously of the opinion that the war must be brought to a halt.

This war is inflicting untold harm on the people of Vietnam. It is being fought in behalf of a succession of unpopular regimes, not for the ideals you proclaim. Our military are obviously being defeated; yet we persist in extending the war. The problems of America cry out for attention, and our entanglement in South Vietnam postpones the confrontation of these issues while prolonging the misery of the people of that war-torn land.

You must act now to reverse this sorry state of affairs. We call on you to end, not extend, the war in Vietnam.

DISCIPLINE

- 1) This is a peaceful petition, and we ask people to please obey this decision.
- 2) Obey the instructions of picket captains and the police.
- 3) Literature may be distributed subject only to police regulations.
- 4) We will have several large banners identifying the March. Smaller signs will be printed slogans—"End the War in Vietnam Now," "Withdraw Now," "Cease Fire—Negotiate," "War on Poverty—Not on People," "I won't Fight in Vietnam," "Ballots not Bombs in Vietnam," "Vietnam for the Vietnamese," "Stop the Killing," "Freedom Now in Vietnam," "Unconditional Negotiations—Yes, Killing Vietnamese Children—No."

We ask that people bring only signs identifying their cities and schools, and not their organizations. No Sale of literature is allowed by the Washington police. Literature may be distributed.
