

JACKSON, MISS.

from Jesse Harris 12/10/63 taken by mary

Lois Chafed picked up today for the second time on a charge of PERJURY

she had been arrested the first time shortly after the death of Medgar Evers, Jesse thinks around June 25th, because she had testified at a Hinds County trial that she had seen police beat a demonstrator. She was released on $2,000 cash bond. She had been scheduled to appear in court to day, and when she went to court, she was arrested the second time on the same charge.

Bond now is set at $5,000 property bonds, they will not accept cash.

Trial for the first arrest had been scheduled about Feb. 17. Jesse didn't know schedule for this arrest.

Lois is 24, CORE staff.

we are to care them OK
talked to Bob Gore