

December 31

dSelma: Willie C.

Today state troopers and snubbers are stationed in various stores. Policemen are stationed on the corner of Rogers Boulevard and Broad, Selma Ave. and Broad, and Alabama Ave. and Broad. There are also plainclothesmen walking the streets.

There are warrants out for all of the 'officials' of Dallas County SNCC--they got the names from the charter on the wall of the office

Willie C. thinks there are several of Al Lingo's men in Selma. One is stationed in Fair's store, on Alabama, between Franklin and Washington.

Last night JDeputy Sheriff Crockett and two city policemen came into the Freedom House when Willie C. and Alvery were there. kEik The first time Crockett knocked on the door and then barged in saying it was the sheriff. Then khe went to the back door and let two -city officers in. - He had no warrant. Just walked through the house. Came in about three times. Made the remark, "you'd better be careful boy, we're liable to shoot you any time".(Sh. Crockett)

Missing from office files:

finance report

Don's rest home material

affidavits on voter registration (index cards left alone)

special reports on Selma from Atlanta office

legal pads with Louise's notes from city directory (chamber of commerce)

Student Voice (especially issues on Danville and Selma)

cartoon leaflets with Claude Porter's name on them

Montgomery Adv. news articles

leaflets from last week's mass meeting

(three cartoons in wall re confederacy were torn up)

missing from house:

material from SNCC DC conference

material from conference on disadvantaged at Tuskegee

several tapes (with Willie C. preparing a speech)

March on DC albums