Avon was arrested-- about 2: 15 this afternoon-- he doesn't know what he's been charged with but jailer says it was contempt of court. Avon went to court this morning and he doesn't know if charge was for today's appearance or another time (this morning he went to court for the appeals of charges from this summer's demonstrations).
Don't know what fine is or what bond is.
Recess now on today's trials.
