

DANVILLE

Jan. 27 Monday taken by mek

AVON ROLLINS rearrested on old charge of contempt of court.

Police came by office, Avon called to ask why they came by, they said they had a summons for him to appear in court. He was picked up in the hall of the courthouse when he went down. Judge Aiken signed order.

He got 30 days or $250 fine

Office people say he's ill and can't stay 30 days.

I asked if he could stay long enough to get appeal filed.

They said the lawyers (Atty Ruth Woods handling it with another lawyer) said appeal would be very difficult because "the appeal from last summer had not been perfected." They also said, "Judge Aiken will not let an appeal go through."

He's now at the city jail.

We are to call back re payment of fine at (703) 793-7191 since office will be closed.

Jim - call Marian Wright