

April 15 Wed. JACKSON from Joan Trumpauer taken by mary Eddie McKay arrested at Holiday on Ice performance April 14.

He and Bobbie Talbert of Jackson arrested, both had valid tickets but police charged they had forged tickets. Tickets say management reserves the right to substitute seats of equal value. They insisted they had right to see original seats to see if substitutes were of equal value/ after management tried to put them in Negro section Wouldn't let them see. Before they even entered the police started traibling them with newsmen behind. Arrested because wouldn't leave and wouldn't take seats in N section chg: breach peace, $500 bond reporter called Rev King and said police charged forged tickets white stu had purchased ticket convicted today, 6 months $500 fine.

Jack Young defended. will appeal.

Eddie out on bond, Talbert still in because Evers out of town contact Cleveland Ohio (where hg of H on I located) yo get them we contacted unions if they are union members, just dues paying local mger earlier declaredd they would not cancel, much coverage that H on I would not cancel.

Cult & Art Comm appealed to NAA because got no respõse from Atlanta office

Evers wrote Cleveland hg; out of town.

Mr. Grant, manager of H on I (Art) based in C. said they had 791-9835 (216) not recd letter till nite og show said he would try for integ showing today called back today with quote from state law that bldgs had to be seg.

want them to read statement protesting seg and saying that they would not play again kids truned away tonight again, ABC there