

Jackson: 8:45 About 20 Negro high school students gathered at the COFO office to get ready to attempt to register at three all white high schools. Murrah, Provid, and Central High schools. They will be going in groups of three to the different schools. The first group left about 8:45 the next group will leave about 10:30.

The following is a report from one of the students that ix went ot Murrah High school. " We arrived at Murrah at nine o'clock this morning. There were four policemen at the school. We were not asked any questions by them, but the adults that was with us was stopped by them. The four of us Lydia Hollins, Larry Washington, Denver Washington and myself Hymethia Washington went as far as the door There we were stopped by a man which I took for granted to be the principal. He told us that we would have to register at the school that we attended last year, and then go to Mr. Amos Wright's office and apply for a transfer. Then he would be willing to accept ix as students. I had already asked that my transcript be sent to Murrah from Brinkley, the school I attended last year. The principal at Murrah told me that it had not been sent there. The students(white) at Murrah were quite. Hymethia.Washington
