July 2 12:10 AM

Meridian: Bob Gore: incident coming from Mass meeting at Pilgrim Progress Baptist Church. A young local white lady threw a bottle from her porch into the group of people standing outside the church after the meeting. Someone's leg got cut. Lila Waterhouse, a local young girl about 17 was cut. The police did apprehend the girl who threw the bottle (they were already on the scene) but not sure whether she is still being held. The police want one of the volunteers to come to court to testify against her. Juvenile Officer ~~W.A.~~ Trial is 9 o'clock in Meridian. Emmett Keller, Juvenile Officer, came to ask David Kotz, summer volunteer, to testify. The bottle thrower was about 17. Gore wants a lawyer, so that everything goes well. Gore would rather he didn't testify if there is no lawyer.

1:30 Jackson Harrassment call. No one said anything, Hung up.
1:40 nuisance call; 1:55 nuisance call

2:00 a.m. Canton Scott Smith. Have received number of calls during night when someone answered the phone screaming and cursing in neighborhood with playing music. ~~Microphone in hand, shouting, directing activity toward COFO office. Call Madison County sheriff's office, making FBI & COFO aware immediately. Which police seem have night patrol tonight~~ when no one answered. police now circling neighborhood with microphone, disturbing neighborhood, playing music and siren on. Activity clearly directed to COFO office. Call ~~Madison~~ Canton city police, sheriff's office and inquire why this is going on. Ask who is on duty tonight. Officer Allen is in car. Notify FBI.

2:10 called Canton sheriff's office 859-4343. No answer.. Called highway patrol in Jackson, which called Canton police on their radio. Also asked for sheriff's office. No answer. Called Jackson F.B.I. 2:20 no answer at office. Called Canton. Nuisance activity continuing. Two more nuisance calls. Trying to get Smith to cuss on phone, jail on state law ~~law~~ against profanity. Wants to know who on patrol why no protection available. No police protection available. 2:21 a.m. patrol car goes by again flashing light. 2:30 called Agent Helgeson at home. Gave him above information. He asked for my name, said he would check. (Bob Byers)

Smith said definitely a ~~stop sign~~ Now only flashing lights./Line busy 2: 40 called Canton again. ~~Stop sign~~ City police car. One patrolman is definitely Allen. During the day, different cars pass by two or three times, all owned by white citizens council members...have list of license plates.
Same cars come by each day. Olds 1963 white 4 dr. always has three men, with large antenna...any citizens council members on executive staff of WCC have this kind of antenna...probably part of state-wide hookup...citizens band could be used for this. Can be heard on walkie talkie...have been seen using car microphones.
