GREENWOOD: 12:10 a.m. Carol(?) To Dinky

During the store boycott Mrs. Louise Delany family was arrested, except herself and three small children (4, 10, 17, husband deceased). Aug. 13 charged with creating a disturbance in a public place. They were released on Wed. the 19th (3) and the 20th (1) on appeal bond of $100, (for three of the cases and the last case was released on $20, (and removed to federal court) on Aug. 20. She was evicted by her landlord, she left last night and stayed with her father in a two room house. Jesse helped her look for a house and found a temporary place with three rooms for $6. a week. Her welfare has been cut off because her children participated in picketing. SNCC plendo to build a 'tent city' to house the people evicted for their participation in the movement. Jesse is going to organize it. Mr. Coleman, a local carpenter gave 16 lots of land to be used this. Tonight Mr. Coleman was threatened by phone that he would be killed by Sunday.

A car followed Mr. Coleman and Jesse when they went to look at the lots yesterday. A local car will circle his house all night for protection, two vehicles received at 10:45 Mississippi time.

A Mrs. Johnson may soon be put out for her civil rights activities. 16 of the largest size canvases must be raised by the Friends of SNCC.

ITTA BENA: (Jonnott/KIN) 1:15 pm

Willie McGee reported to Greenwood that Percy's Chapel on the road from Itta Bena to Berea was burned to the ground tonight. As far as we know there was no history of civil rights activities.

ALBANY: (Barrett/Rob Cunningham) 5:40 pm

The police went through the Harlem section this afternoon clearing the streets and closing business establishments. All places were supposed to be closed by 6 pm. The mass meeting begins at 8:00 and the workers expect trouble.

ALBANY: (Barrett/Grogan) 8:15 pm

The rally has started. About 50 people are there but large numbers are within hearing distance (on porches and on the street) so Joyce estimates that 200 people will be reached by the rally. There are at least 20 police in the immediate vicinity and an estimated 100 in the general area. They are carrying riot guns. Albany wants a photographer for the funeral tomorrow. The rally is being held at Eureka Baptist Church. The funeral tomorrow is at 2:00 pm at Mt. Zion Church.

ALBANY: (Barrett/Grogan) 11:00 pm

The rally was considered a great success. It ended in a peaceful march of 60 people proceeding two by two to the city hall. When assembled at the city hall, the marchers were addressed by Hosea Williams and Slater King, prominent figures in the local movement. The speaking was followed by singing and praying. The assembly lasted for about fifteen minutes. There were large numbers of policemen in the area, both during the march and at the assembly in front of city hall.

There were no reported arrests or incidents of violence. The demonstration was a peaceful and meaningful one. Albany Negroes have been attempting for two one-half years to win the right to protest peacefully. Tonight, for the first time, such a peaceful protest took place in the form of sixty Negroes, both young and old, marching to the Albany City Hall.
