Indianola: Eym Edwards- 12:40 The town has been putting pressure on the freedom school to fix up the electrical appliances or they will condemn the building.

This involves getting a permit from the city and hiring an electrician. The Negro electrician was harrassed by the local whites when he went down town to get the permit. He won't do the work on the building now. They are trying to get another electrician now.

They were also told that the building ~~with~~ can only hold about 100 people safely at a time. 400 people have been coming to mass meetings held in the building. The building can hold 175 people .

A local Negro family that has been very active in the movement has been having a lot of trouble.

The ~~son~~ son was suspended from school for participating in a rally. He was one of the leaders. The father went down to the school to see the principle and asked that his son be reinstated because he was illegally suspended.

His father was the driver for the school bus.

That following day, the father's pay check was picked up by one of the companies ~~to whom he owed a bill~~ to whom he owed a bill. He asked the principle about this, and was told that that was a standard policy. He lost his job with the school and they took away the bus he was driving.

His wife has taken the son to Tenn.

Clarksdale: Jane Steidemann- 1:05-- A rock was thrown ~~through~~ through the window of a local Negro family.

The police either picked up for questioning or arrested a local white kid for the incident. The police said that there were no racial factors involved.

Moss Point: Mermie McKay: 3:45-- 25 local people were walking around the laundrymat they are boycotting urging people to stay away. The police came up and told them that if they didn't disperse they would all be arrested. The people dispersed.

Six people are going back to the laundry mat to continue urging the people to stay away because they feel that this is the only effective way.

They will stay until dark and then leave if they are not arrested.

Wants legal to talk to a lawyer in case people are really arrested.

Moss Point: Mermie McKay-- 4:30-- Six local people were arrested at about 3:50 today in connection with the selective buying ~~campaign~~ (washing) campaign going on in Moss Point.

The people arrested are Tommy Reeves, 16 or 17, Rosemary Simons, 16 or 17, Willie Reeves, 16 or 17, Eartha Fountain, 18, Deloris Washington 20, and Nellie Seller, 22.

They were taken to the Moss Point city jail. The office hasn't talked yet with anyone from the jail.

~~Apparently the police came up and~~

The group had just gone down to the laundrymat to urge the local ~~white~~ Negroes to stay away and use another laundrymat. As soon as they got there, a policeman came up and told them to get in the car. They got in the car and were taken to jail.

They are all going to stay in jail until bond money is gotten for all six of them. ~~2000000~~
