Clarksdale:

Les Johnson, 20, Glendora, California, arrested for running a traffic light which he says he did not run. Evidently they are arresting now if one is in the intersection while the light turns yellow. Johnson paid his $18 fine and was released.

Greenwood: Judy Richardson

A young Negro boy from Greenwood has been missing since Sunday. He went to Sunday school and has not been seen since.

Natchez: address: 611 S. Wall Street Extension

McComb:

They now have a church for the Freedom School. Until now the school has been conducted outside in front of the Wall st. house.

Americus: John Ferdeu

They are having a barbeque at Koinanea on Sunday at 2pm to kick off a maids union. Should have about 100 people. All the maids in Americus contacted. Jack will try to get Teamsters man. C.B. King, Rev. Wells, etc. will be there. THEY WANT PRESS.
