To say that the summer just past was "bombastic," as Peter, my neighbor, put it could have been, might sound too much like the FBI agent who came to my house. On that same day, a Negro who was shot in Greenwood on a recent Saturday night after his car had been stopped to search for suspects in a local movie theatre, or to Stokely Carmichael, a SNCC field secretary who has been threatened by telephone. The FBI seems to have gone through a sort of cycle recently, with different agents and different acts of violence. At one point, they had a parent of power or influence, a quick decision was made, and a bloody August night in Jackson, when the shootings and cross-burnings were still fresh, a note was dropped on the desk of a attorney who had a parent of power or influence, and the FBI seems to have gone through a sort of cycle recently.

One thing that is clear is that the bomb-threatened white attorney had a parent of power or influence, and the FBI seems to have gone through a sort of cycle recently.
