10. Give your impressions of community, evaluation of your work, what you think can be done. Considerable evidence of the closed society; business people courteous but cool; some hostile looks. T The wide range of exposure was gained far more than I gave. remarkable in the space of a week. It included the negro community of Palmer's Crossing; middle class Pine View; the hostess at Greenville; Co-Fo; the Minister's Project with the able and perceptive leadership of Bob Beech; the Delta Ministry Staff and Program; a group of high school students planning for Freedom Day; a meeting of FDP (district); a meeting on the last day with the NAACP which provided the best opportunity of all with the exception of Bob Beech of dialogue in depth/ My contribution was limited in part because of the wide range of exposure. T learned that the presence of ministers in itself was of consider-I think there was some contribution in the case able value. of a number of individuals of strengthening and firming of purpose, certainly of a sense of sympathetic understanding with the North.
