February 12, 1964

Dear Anne and Carl,

I enclose a carbon of a letter to Jim with some questions Carol Bernstein has put to me and I cannot answer.

Perhaps you can help.

Second, I have decided to proceed and print as a pamphlet the Memorial Address I gave in Ghana, with a nice cover picture of W.E.B., and it will be available before his birthday, Feb. 23rd, and the Carnegie Hall rally.

It is a terribly expensive undertaking and I must discover how to promote some sales.

Do you think the SP could either review it, or simply announce its availability with the information as to how readers can obtain it?

The material is on the attached Memo.

Affectionately,

Wm. Howard Melish
