Dear Mr. Moore,

I am writing in the hope that you will be able to clear up some confusion that has arisen in my mind as to the food and clothing that you had asked for through The Houston Post.

My Temple youth group, Tefty, wants to help and as I was the one who called your request to the attention of the group, I was put in charge of getting a drive under way.

I wrote to Mrs. Lou Hamer in Ruleville telling her of my group's concern in getting the project under way and asking her if the food and clothing we collected should be sent directly to her. In addition, I said that as Tefty wouldn't be able to ship anything until early May, would we be able to send anything in particular?

Her reply, in part, was "Yes, Sir, my husband is not working and our rent is due also I owe a Dr. bill and drug bill. If you could send me a donation I would be so greatful."

This statement was confusing to me for two reasons. First, I had thought that you were asking for food and clothing to be distributed throughout the area and not just to those whose names appeared in the Post. And second, the article said that money was not being requested.

Will you please straighten me out as soon as possible?

In the event that checks are being accepted, could one be made out to you or some organization, and have you or it make the purchases in Cleveland so that you would have the benefit of the money that would have gone for shipping costs?

Sincerely

Jeffry Glatstein
