Oxford, Ohio, Sunday, June 14, '64
3:00 p.m.

Dear Rosemarie,

Just as I began to write, two young men from the National Council of Churches came over and introduced themselves - a photographer, Ken Thomas, and Danny - who has been working in Mississippi. Both are white, <sup>and</sup> as I understand, 60% of the college volunteers for the Summer Project.

For the TTP celebration honoring five distinguished men, please use the sample note which is with the material.

I think it's rather uninspired, but don't feel in the mood myself. In addition to the names I checked (and gave to Suelle) on the Shakespeare Festival list, please send note to the following,
w. Enclosures of course:

Joe Tuchinsky is getting worried, so I asked Fuller to call him at A-F.S.C. and tell him this list is forthcoming immediately. I believe he is currently looking after this matter for Jack Bollen.

I am happily ensconced in College View Motel  $\frac{1}{2}$  mi. from the college. I decided to stay here because I have an air-conditioned room and a swimming pool which make a lot more sense than living in a <sup>hot</sup> dormitory, w. no privacy. This will be a godsend

- to be able to get away from the subject every day for a few hours and be repushed. So please tell Lucille this is my address.

I can either walk it or drive my blinding - red Mustang - Hertz.

Hope things are looking more cheerful for you -

Fondly,

Judy

Love to all. Will write them soon -
