SICC-Atlanta

Dear Nancy:

Just one brief request, but in writing rather than over the WATS line so it doesn't get lost.

Art Waskow at the Institute for Policy Studies (1900 Florida Ave., NW) would like a total of the number of communities in Mississippi in which there are COFO projects, for a piece he is writing. Could you give him a call with that info, or at least a rough approximation?

Sorry for the editorial in the Washington Post--I talked with one of their most liberal editors, Alan Barth, for an hour and a half just before the editorial conference yesterday, but couldn't get anywhere with him. Perhaps by urging the need for Federal marshalls backfired, even.

Peace,

Jim Henson
