Dear Jo Ann:

I am glad to hear from you and to know that there will be an opportunity for you to get this before you leave for Oxford, Mississippi.

In the first place, I would like to leave with you a concern that you hold back a few hours to turn out a short article on the meaning of Mississippi and student vocation.

The September issue of Fellowship is to be devoted to student vocation and I would like to have a bit of first-hand experience to season the lot.

I have before me the extremely poignant statement of the late Michael Schwerner one of the three martyrs which I shall probably also use in the issue.

I think that I can take one concern off your hands and that is that John Papworth is to speak at the Seabeck conference at the FOR in Seattle this week.

We are doing all we can to tie in with peace-organization concern about the pressure for federal intervention in Mississippi. A meeting on this is being held tonight in New York.

Sincerely,

James S. Best
