Congress of the United States

JOINT ECONOMIC COMMITTEE

(CREATED PURSUANT TO SEC. 5(a) OF PUBLIC LAW 304, 78TH CONGRESS)

August 18, 1964

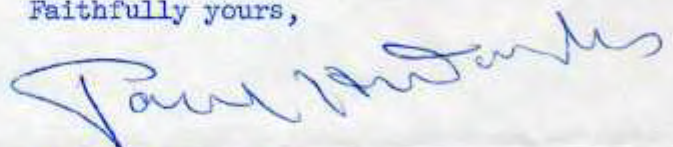

Miss Jo Ann Ooiman
838 Lutz, c/o Marcia Hall
Canton, Mississippi

Dear Miss Ooiman:

Thank you for your letter describing your work in Canton, Mississippi, teaching Negro residents there under the Mississippi project. I share your concern over whether your work will be lost when you leave or whether it can be continued and bear fruit. It is my hope that vigorous enforcement of the Civil Rights Act will help to preserve and expand the foundations for freedom which your work has laid.

With best wishes,

Faithfully yours,

Paul H. Douglas
