Dear Marvin:

It's been a month, and I still have not heard from you concerning the application for foundation support of the community center program. I decided to write and ask. Please tell me what foundations you took the proposal to, what part or parts of my paper you used, what you asked for specifically, and what the response was, and what results if any you know about. You can understand that I want to know for two reasons: the program desperately needs independent financing, and the most likely source is from foundations, and also because I have never before had anything to do with a foundation application and I ~~would~~ am very curious to hear about details. I had hoped to see you at the New Orleans meeting which did not materialize. Anyway, please write to me and tell me a little bit about what you did and what happened.

Thank you.

Yours truly,

Lois Chaffee
