$90.

Dear Miss Bankhead:

We hope you can put the enclosed contribution to good use in your Freedom School project. I will arrange to send some clothing in the near future.

As you may know, an Athens citizen group known as ACRAC has raised several hundred dollars for John Bradford and his group in Shaw, Mississippi. Bonnie Guy, one of the SNCC workers there last summer, and presently a student at Ohio University here, tells me that the Shaw and Cleveland Freedom Schools are closely connected, so perhaps your school will benefit from the ACRAC donation also.

I would very much appreciate specific information on how you use our donation, and what you find most necessary at present. If I have a list of things like building repairs, rent bills, book needs and so forth, I can make a much better appeal to our Fellowship and perhaps increase our contribution. Of course the most important and useful information I could have is a description of the present condition of the people - what they are doing, what they cannot do, what you hope to do to help them. I hope you will be able to help me with some of this information.

Sincerely,

William T. Beale
