To Whom It May Concern:

The Human Relations Commission, the Students for Democratic Society, and the Inter-Religious Council, all of the University of Oklahoma conducted a fund raising drive in sympathy of the Civil Rights Movement in Mississippi and through the contributions of many students' nickels and dimes were able to collect the enclosed $100.00 for the aid of COFO. The amount, I am sure, must seem small, but for this generally apathetic campus, we feel that it represents a greater sum than its monetary value.

A letter of receipt and thanks would be much appreciated. It would be reprinted in our campus newspaper and would give encouragement to those who are ardently concerned about the problems of human relations that involve us all today.

May this little contribution add its full worth to yours and our, cause, the cause of freedom for all.

Sincerely,

Eric Feaver
Chairman, Human Relations Commission
