Dear Lucy,

Enclosed is a copy of the schedule for the Fitzgerald workshop. I have circled in red the discussions which do not have specific leaders and checked with asterisks the ones I hope you will be able to assist. We are looking forward to seeing you in Fitzgerald sometime next week. Please let us know where we can pick you up and we will meet you at the plane. Macon, Georgia will be your closest connection, but Albany is not much farther away.

I thought the White community project Workshop was great and the evening on the mountain was delightful. The pillars at the entrance to the house in Knoxville were painted with a delightfully executed stencil of hammer and sickle on Friday night sometime between 10 and 11 while several of the kids were sitting in the living room listening to the tapes of the meetings. Getting right bold--these night riders. Under this lovely stencil job we plastered "KKK was here."

Wanted to tell you how well things have been working out with John. He has made a choice about going back to school this fall. I have been able to spend a good deal more time with him lately and this has seemed to help, although we still are not out of the rough. But all of this is thanks to you and your original eye-opener.

You can reach Arthur Haynes at the address listed on the schedule--see you then.

Sincerely yours,

C. Conrad Browne
