"We hold these truths to be self-evident; that all men are created equal; that they are endowed by their creator with certain unalienable rights; that among these are life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness; That to secure these rights, governments are instituted among men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed; that whenever any form of government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the right of the people to alter or to abolish it and to institute new government, laying it's foundations on such principles, and organizing it's power in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their safety and happiness........when a long train of abuses and usurpations, pursuing invariably the same object, evinces a design to reduce them under absolute despotism, IT IS THEIR RIGHT, IT IS THEIR DUTY, TO THROW OFF SUCH GOVERNMENT AND PROVIDE NEW GAURDS FOR THEIR FUTURE SECURITY."

POWER TO THE PEOPLE

"We are the advocates of the abolition of war, we do not want war; but war can only be abolished through war, and in order to get rid of the gun it is necessary to take up the gun." -Mao

The wheel of law turns without pause
After the rain, good weather in the wink of an eye
The universe throws off its muddy clothes
For ten thousand miles the landscape
Spreads out like a beautiful brocade, light breezes, smiling flowers.
High in the trees, amongst the sparkling leaves
All the birds sing at once, men and animals rise-up reborn.
What could be more natural? After sorrow comes joy.
-Mao
