

[Note: Correct name is "Frank Cieciora"]

100 Rust Avenue
Holly Springs, Mississippi
August 119, 1964

Mr. Paul Krassner
Box 242 Madison Square Station
New York City, New York

Dear Mr. Krassner:

Not only are we impressed but we're very grateful to you for helping us to retrieve Frank Caccatori and, even more, for the $400 we've already gotten back (Frank aint worth that much!).

Our project will continue through next year with freedom schools and voter registration projects throughout the state, and we hope that you and your readers will keep thinking of us (we need y'all!).

Again, thank you.

Yours in freedom,

Karin Kunstler

monday

Dear SNNC:

(certified)

The enclosed is to bail out Frank Caccatori (I'm sorry, I just can't spell his goddam name). And when you get the money back, use it to help the voter registration project. If there's ~~any~~ many mis- or non-information that the general press has had about your activities, please let me know. Whoever answered the phone when I called--you said, "I'm impressed"--well, it was embarrassing, because I just want you to know I'm impressed.

paul krassner

The Realist

box 242 madison square station new york
n. y.
10010

gr 7-3490

