We arrived at the courthouse in Magnolia about 9:00 a.m., October 26, 1964. There were five of us - four ministers and myself. When we approached the courthouse, Sheriff Warren ran out of the building and told us we had three minutes to go home or else we would be arrested. We continued to advance toward the courthouse. Sheriff Warren went back in then returned almost immediately and told us to leave or we would be arrested on a charge of "contempt of Court". He made the arrest when we refused to move and put us in jail.
