SNCC Legacy Project Statement on the 65th Anniversary of the Sit-In Movement

The MAGA Regime and Us,

As you can see from the graph in our 2025 Annual Report, the number of visitors to our website declined 44% from a high of 450,000 visitors in the yearbefore Trump was elected president to 250,000 during his term.

We estimate that two-thirds of our visitors are students in grade school and college. We assume they use us to complete class assignments, projects, and papers. In the face of the unrelenting attacks against 'wokism,' DEI, and any teaching about race and racism that began during the 2016 election campaign and intensified thereafter, it's no surprise that some school boards, teachers, administrators, and professors, succumbed to intimidation and stepped back from teaching the Freedom Movement.

In 2020, our traffic spiked back up during the George Floyd protests and the presidential campaign. But in the years that followed, MAGAites continued their attacks and intimidation unrestrained and unabated. So during the Biden administration, our number of visitors again declined until leveling out in 2023 and 2024 at around 60% of what it had been in 2015.

These first days of the new regime make clear that they intend to use the full power of the federal government to eliminate 'wokism' from schools and colleges. Compared to the squalls that we have endured up to now, it looks like the coming storm is going to be a hurricane. So we expect that when threatened with budget cuts and public intimidation, too many educators will cut back on or even eliminate entirely teaching about the Civil Rights Movement of the 1950-1960s, which will significantly reduce how many students use us.

Yet we also know, that as Tolstoy once observed, "The two most powerful warriors are patience and time." So our response will be to continue preserving and protecting primary-source materials and lives-lived memories of the Freedom Movement and maintaining this CRMA website as a free, open, un-censored, tell it like it was source of information.

Fortunately, we are self-governed and self-reliant. We are almost entirely self-funded by small donations from Freedom Movement veterans and supporters. We have no advertisers, and are therefore immune to sponsor-threats. Nor do we receive any money at all from any government agencies or corporate-funded foundations. So while the number of our visitors may well go down, "Like a tree beside the water, we shall not be moved."

PLEASE DONATE

With a Little Help From Our Friends, We'll keep on keeping on.

Ever since we established the CRMA (originally known as "CRMVet") in 1999, it has been almost entirely funded by personal donations from Freedom Movement veterans and individual supporters. We carry on this work with almost zero institutional support, foundation grants, or philanthropic contributions. So if you find our CRMA site useful and worthy, please click donate to keep us alive and growing. You can donate via check, your bank's Bill Pay service, or PayPal. Thank you for anything you are able to contribute.

OUR SISTER SITES

SNCC Legacy Project (SLP). SLP preserves and extends SNCC's legacy. Although SNCC the organization no longer exists, we believe that its legacy continues and needs to be brought forward in ways that continue the struggle for freedom, justice and equality today.

SNCC Digital Gateway (SDG). A joint project of SLP and Duke University, SDG tells the story of how young activists in SNCC united with local people in the South to build a grassroots movement for change that empowered the Black community and transformed the nation.

Black Power Chronicles. The SNCC Legacy Project created the Black Power Chronicles (BPC) in 2015 to help fill the informational void that exists in our historical record about the impact of the Black Power Movement in local communities throughout America.

Movement History Initiative, John Hope Franklin Center, Duke University.

Teaching for Change and Zinn Education Project. Provides teachers and parents with the tools to create schools where students learn to read, write, and change the world by promoting and supporting the teaching of people's history in middle and high school classrooms across the country.

SCOPE 50. Preserving Civil Rights and the Story of Voting. Website of SCLC/SCOPE project activists.

Veterans of the Mississippi Civil Rights Movement. Empowering the next generation, passing it on to carry it on by preserving the history of the Mississippi Movement.

WEBSITE REPORT

According to Google, there were 31,448 visits to the CRMA website during January for an average of 1048 per day (with a peak of 1800 on Martin Luther King Day). On school days, our number of visitors ranged from 900 to 1200 per day.

Roughly 13% of our visitors came from outside the U.S. On average, international users make close to a fifth of our users. We are proud that our Freedom Movement of the 1960s is still of interest to people around the world and that our site still stands as a free, publicly-available, un-censored international information resource.

As of February 1st, our online archive contains 10,569 viewable pages, documents, images, and recordings, plus 428 videos in our Vimeo video channel.

Google reports that out on the global internet there are 21,818 backlinks to materials on our site by people, organizations, and schools using us as an information resource.
